Your Duty of Disclosure

Before you enter into a contract of general insurance with an insurer you have a duty, under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984, to disclose to the insurer every matter you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, is relevant to the insurer's decision whether to accept the risk of the insurance and, if so, on what terms.

You have the same duty to disclose these matters to the insurer before you renew, extend, vary or reinstate a contract of general insurance.

- Your duty does not require disclosure of matter:
- that diminishes the risk to be undertaken by the insurer;
 - that is common knowledge;
 - that your insurer knows or, in the ordinary course of its business, ought to know;
 - as to which compliance with your duty is waived by the insurer.

If you are uncertain about whether or not a particular matter should be disclosed to the insurer, please contact our office.

Non-Disclosure

If you fail to comply with your duty of disclosure, the insurer may be entitled to reduce its liability under the contract in respect of a claim or may cancel the contract. If your non-disclosure is fraudulent, the insurer, may also have the option of avoiding the contract from its beginning.

Utmost Good Faith

Every contract of insurance is based on the utmost good faith requiring each party (i.e. you and the insurer) to act towards the other party in respect of any matter arising under the contract, with the utmost good faith. If you fail to do so you may prejudice any claim.

Johnson Pacific Pty Ltd trading as Genesis Insurance Brokers Australia is an authorised agent for the underwriters (i.e. insurers), for the purpose of entering into contracts of insurance with intending insured parties and for the dealing with and settling of claims thereunder. At no time do we act in the capacity of agent for the insured or intending insured parties, in either capacity or any other capacity.

Declaration and agreement:

I/We acknowledge that no cover is provided until, underwriters advise in writing of the cover and terms which they can provide, this cover and terms is then accepted by the Insured, Underwriters are advised of acceptance of their offer and Genesis Insurance Brokers acknowledges to the Insured that cover is provided.

I/We acknowledge and understand the effect of all the Notices Duty of Disclosure above.

By signing this application, I/We agree to Genesis Insurance Brokers collecting, using and disclosing my/our personal information, including sensitive information if applicable, in accordance with the Privacy Act 1988.
